

LOUIE'S BLUE MARTINI

When the light is on this is what's going on

SALUTE TO THE TROOPS

VOL 1, ISS 4, MAY 06

There is so many things in the month of May first is Cinco de Mayo the celebration of Mexican Independence, then we honor our mothers for mothers day and finally we wrap the month with Memorial Day. This day is particularly important to me as we remember our fallen comrades in arms. As most of the patrons of Louie's Blue Martini are former military or still in the actively serving we all have a common link to our military history and it should never be forgotten. So make sure that you take a moment this Memorial Day and reflect on the sacrifice that our military has given so we all can sit around and socialize around a blue neon glow.

PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

I know the newsletter is late this month and I apologize things are so busy at work and home that I just have not had the time to get this done. I want to thank all who attended the Cinco de Mayo party it was a lot of fun and we had a great turn out once again. Check out the pics on the website nothing too incriminating. Also happy birthday to Rene and I. The calendar is looking a little bleak so send in your events, birthdays, or special occasions. So far there is nothing planned for June or July, I know that Paulette and I are going to sneak away before the summer starts and all the kids are here. Let me know. I will be hosting a few more weekenders and with the weather getting warmer we can kick on the fire pit. Remember as always drink responsibly and don't drink and drive.
