

LOUIE'S BLUE MARTINI

When the light is on this is what's going on

DRINK HISTORY "COSMOPOLITIAN"

VOL 1, ISS 8, SEP06

Now to every one as the "Cosmo" the Cosmopolitan first appeared on menus in the late 80's in New York City at the Odeon in TriBeCa, also in San Francisco at the Fog City Diner. A Woman named C. Cook claims to have invented it in South Beach, Miami. Made famous by the cable TV show "Sex in the City" it is now the most recognized drink in the world. The contemporary recipe for the Cosmo goes back to the marketing of Absolut Citron Vodka. If you go back further, Ocean Spray began promoting liquor with their product aggressively from 1956 to 1970.

Known for its pink cranberry-induced hue, the Cosmopolitan largely caters to a female crowd—although some men, secure in their manhood, will give it a swill. Although any drink served in a slender curvaceous long-stemmed glass might induce a limp in the wrist or a slight lisp to the lips, that is, unless your name is Sean Connery or Frank Sinatra. Levels of manhood are directly proportionate to the ability to womanize. Some men who do enjoy themselves a cosmopolitan have been savvy enough to disguise the drink's color by using white cranberry juice instead of regular.

PAST, PRESENT AND FUTURE

"The hard part about being a bartender is figuring out who is drunk and who is just stupid"

The disco party was a total blast, thank you for all making it to much fun. Pics have been loaded to the website for all to enjoy. This months marks Paulette's and I 1st wedding anniversary so we are going to go away for the weekend. Starting September 8th we will be opening on Friday nights for our regular weekender. As usual this will be a time to unwind from a hectic week, enjoy the best drinks in town and listen to some great music. Keep an eye out for the light. Some ideas for future events is an October Fest, German theme with beer tasting and authentic foods. Then as all of you know Halloween is my favorite, I'm still working on the date since it falls on a Tuesday. More to come.

As always remember to drink responsibly and do not drink and drive. I guess I also need to mention to be careful when walking home.
